- Elizabeth House: 626-577-4434 www.elizabthhouse.net

Elizabeth House provides shelter, hope & support to homeless pregnant women and their children, as well as comprehensive program of case management, counseling, educational classes, prenatal care, and resources throughout the pregnancy and beyond. Elizabeth House is the only 501©(3) non-profit organization in the San Gabriel Valley that specifically addresses the needs of pregnant women who also have small children and who lack adequate shelter and prenatal care. All clients must be pregnant women, ages 18 and older that may or may not have children.

- Haven House Crisis Line: 323-681-2626

Haven House is dedicated to helping abused women and their children on their way toward a life free of violence. A trained bilingual staff operates a confidential 24 hour hotline to provide crisis intervention, information, and referrals. Counselors are available 365 days a year. Operated in a confidential location of Los Angeles County, our residential program is a 30 day emergency shelter with the ability to accommodate 36 domestic violence victims and operates 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Residents receive food, clothing and medical assistance to address their physical needs. Additionally, individual and group counseling, crisis intervention, domestic violence education, legal and social services advocacy are provided to address their emotional needs.

- Family Promise SGV: 626-569-0991

Family Promise of San Gabriel Valley is a nonprofit organization that was incorporated in May 2009 to provide temporary housing and other assistance to homeless families in the region. Family Promise has created a network of congregations across the western San Gabriel Valley that take turns, a week at time, housing and feeding homeless families that are admitted into the program. During the day, the children go to school, while the parents go to the Family Promise Resource Center where they receive assistance finding housing, work and social services they may need.

- Door of Hope* Follow Prompts: (626) 304-9130

Door of Hope is a non-profit, faith-based organization whose mission is to equip homeless families to rebuild their lives. Since 1985, they have been providing transitional housing and a restoration program especially designed for homeless families with children. Door of Hope is one of the few places that will accept the three main family types of all sizes: Single mothers (including victims of domestic violence) with children, single fathers with children, married couples with children. There are two program sites, one in Glendale and one in Pasadena with different requirements.

- Family Solutions Center. Call 211

The FSC is a point of entry for families who are literally homeless or at risk of being homeless and who are seeking services. The FSC staff conducts an initial assessment to determine the most appropriate housing intervention for the family. Families are then connected to services and housing options within their own community. Services provided: Standardized Assessments & Interventions including Rapid Re-housing and Prevention, Coordinated Supportive Service and Housing Plan, Connection to Crisis Housing, Connection to Community- Based Supportive Services, Housing Search and Placement, Financial Assistance for Rapid Re-Housing. Tenants' Rights Resources—including eviction defense

IMPORTANT NOTE: After receiving court documents in an eviction/unlawful detainer case, you must respond within 5 days. Saturday and Sunday count within the 5 days. Please do not allow this deadline to pass—even an attorney won't be able to help you if this deadline passes!

- Self-Help Resource Center at Pasadena Court House

This is a legal self-help center inside the courthouse in Pasadena (3rd floor). The Self-Help Resource Center is where you can find the necessary documents you need to respond to an eviction/unlawful detainer case. The forms include one where you must explain what happened, and one where you explain you don't have a lot of money to pay the necessary filing fees for the response. The workers in the self-help resource center ARE NOT LAWYERS. They help in preparing the paperwork you need to file with the court. They do not help you with your case. When you finish preparing your response paperwork, a resource center worker has an attorney check it to make sure it is correct to file with the court—this attorney cannot help you with your case. They are just checking that you can submit it with the court. The center does do a clinic (see below), but you can access forms and form-assistance every day and time they are open (see below).

Self-Help Resource Center: 300 E. Walnut St. (Room 300, 3rd floor) Pasadena, CA 91101

Open Monday-Thursday 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. Fridays 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

Eviction/Unlawful Detainer Walk-In Clinic: Monday-Thursday 1:30 p.m.

Other locations in LA County, hours listed here: <http://www.nlsia.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/10/2-2-Self-Help-Brochure-Revised-Nov-2013.pdf>

- Housing Rights Center <http://www.housingrightscenter.org/>

The Housing Rights Center provides services including landlord-tenant counseling, housing discrimination investigation, advocacy, outreach, and education. This center conducts the Pasadena Housing Mediation program and oversees the Tenant Protection Ordinance. The HRC will not represent tenants, this is not a legal service but a place to get information. HRC does offer walk-in clinics around the LA area, check website for dates and locations.

Food Resources-Community Meals

Pasadena Presbyterian Church

Pastor Walter Conteras- mcymusa@aol.com

PPC's "God Loves You" Food Ministry has three different emphases.

PPC provides hot meals to several dozen people each Thursday evening. This fills a critical need for these people, many of whom are homeless. Your dollars make this ministry possible. We provide "take-away sacks" for homeless people who come on Sunday and during the week to the church office. You may donate money, or any of the following: granola bars, power bars, power drinks, small bottled water, apples, oranges, or canned food with easy-to-open pop-tops. Members of PPC also serve a meal once a month at Union Station with PPC providing the food.

- The Pantry at Friends In Deed

The Pantry at Friends In Deed serves supplemental food to 200 low-income and homeless households each week. To contact the pantry directly, call 626-797-6072 or email pantry@ecpac.net. The only requirements for receiving food are identification for each member of the family and proof of low-income status. The Pantry is open on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 10AM-3PM. Registration is on Wednesdays between 10AM and 12 noon.

- Food-n-things: 951-768-0840

Food-n-Things welcomes anyone in need or homeless in the Pasadena community to come and receive food, donated clothing, counseling, emergency needs as well as spiritual needs.
